

Reflections on Librarians' Learning Communities

Self Reflection

Answer the following questions as a self-reflection of your learning community experience.

1. Was I able to share in a collegial atmosphere? Was I listened to?
 - If not, what prevented this?
2. How was I able to grow professionally through this learning community?
 - List specific examples of professional growth:
3. What steps did I take to implement new information learned during this learning community?
4. Was I able to attend and fully participate in each of our meetings?
 - If not, what prevented this?
5. What were the benefits of participating in this learning community?
6. What were the challenges to participating in this learning community?

Group Reflections

Discuss these questions with your learning community.

1. How can we share what we have learned with our colleagues?
2. What new things did I learn about my group members?
3. What is the most effective thing I have learned that I can use in my library (profession)?
4. If given the chance, would I participate in a learning community again?
