

Photography by Greg Farrar

“Mohawk Reads One Book”

“Doggone” Fun “School” Activities

- Go to the Mohawk Library website “online resources” and research a pet of your choice.
- Record your thoughts about each dog you read about in a journal. List any questions you want to discuss with your family or friends.
- Make a “tally chart” and tally up all the “rescued pets” your friends and relatives have. Compare your findings with others.

Make a list of “amazing facts” you learned from reading SHELTER DOGS on back of this!

Photography by Greg Farrar

“Mohawk Reads One Book”

“Doggone” Fun “Friend” Activities

- Make a “Pet Gallery” of your “rescued pets” by decorating a box or bag of pet food your pet would eat with pictures and words showing how important this pet is to you. Invite other friends to visit your gallery!
- Get together with friends and walk your “rescued” pets together.
- Take your pets out for a “Spa Day” by creating a fun day of pampering, grooming, and hugs galore. Take a picture of the furry creatures receiving “TLC”

Draw a picture of your “fun with friends” on the back of this bookmark!

Photography by Greg Farrar

“Mohawk Reads One Book”

“Doggone” Fun “Family” Activities

- Take your family to a shelter so you can volunteer.
- Offer to help take care of an elderly neighbor’s pet.
- Consider “fostering” an animal in need, even if you can’t keep it permanently.
- Visit the Richardson Public Library on “Tales with Tails” time and read to a furry friend!
- Collect articles from the newspaper, magazines, or the ASPCA website about “rescued” animals. Share what you found during dinner.

Draw a picture of “family fun” time on the back of this bookmark!

Photography by Greg Farrar

“Mohawk Reads One Book”

As you read Shelter Dogs write down your “I wonders...” on this bookmark and then discuss them with your family. Bring them to school in the fall so we can talk about them.

I wonder _____

I wonder _____

I wonder _____

I wonder _____

Draw your favorite “I wonder” on the back of this bookmark!